MEMORANDUM FOR THE ASSISTANT DIRECTOR FOR SPECIAL OPERATIONS

SUBJECT: OPC Communications Requirements

1. Returned herewith is the memorandum from Communications, dated 23 February 1949, on the above subject.

2. OPC is an integral part of CIA and, as such, has not only the right but the responsibility of asking services and assistance from any of the other branches of CIA where such services and assistance can be rendered. Therefore, the training requested shall be provided consistent with space availability and personnel availability. If necessary, additional staff personnel for selection and training duties will be added to Communications rather than setting up an entirely new unit for such training.

3. A copy of this memorandum and of the basic memorandum are being sent to Management in order that they may look into the space facilities available as well as the personnel numbers available.
